Setting Your Identity

Five Ways God Looks at You

Take Note

The way you see your life
shapes your life.

Take Note

How you define your life
determines your destiny.

Take Note

If you're a born-again follower of Jesus, the Bible says you're a child of God. It's your spiritual birthright.

“Yet to all who did receive him,
to those who believed in his name,
he gave the right to become children of God—children born
not of natural descent,
nor of human decision or
a husband’s will, but born of God”

John 1:12-13 (NIV)

Your main identity is in being a child of God. You must discover how God looks at you through the Bible.

CATCH

 As a child of God,
God looks at you as...

- 1. You are acceptable
- 2. You are valuable
- 3. You are lovable
- 4. You are forgivable
- 5. you are capable

As a child of God,
God looks at you
as...

Way #1

You are acceptable

Take Note

Nothing hurts us more in life than rejection. As a result, we spend most of our lives doing all we can to avoid it. It drives what we wear, what we drive, where we live, and more.

“[God] saved us. It was not because of any good deeds that we ourselves had done, but because of his own mercy that he saved us, through the Holy Spirit, who gives us new birth and new life by washing us . . . so that by his grace we might be put right with God and come into possession of the eternal life we hope for...”

Titus 3:5, 7 (GNT)

Take Note

It doesn't matter what you've done.
It doesn't matter whom you've done
it with. God accepts you. You're not accepted because you've always done what's right. You're accepted because of what Jesus has done on your behalf.

Way #2

You are valuable

Take Note

Your self-worth and your net worth aren't tied together. You determine the worth of something by looking at who owns it and what someone is willing to pay for it.

Take Note

You win on both accounts.

You're not just anyone.

You're a child of God. And God paid the ultimate price to get you back. He sent his Son to the cross for you.

Way #3

You are lovable

Take Note

You may not always feel loved.
But the consistent message of the Bible is that you are unmistakably loved by the One who created you.

“The mountains and hills
may crumble, but my love
for you will never end;
I will keep forever my
promise of peace”

Isaiah 54:10 (GNT)

Take Note

God's love for you will never, ever end.
You don't have to earn it. It's a free gift.

Way #4

You are forgivable

Take Note

Before you were born,
God knew the mistakes you'd make.
God knew the sins you'd commit.

“Even before the world was made, God had already chosen us to be his through our union with Christ, so that we would be holy and without fault before him.”

Ephesians 1:4 (GNT)

Take Note

Your faults have never surprised God.
He has known them all along,
yet he still offers forgiveness.

Way #5

You are capable

Take Note

You're not an accident. God created you for a purpose. He has made you completely capable of doing what he has called you to do. Jesus himself gives you the power you need.

“I have strength for all things in Christ Who empowers me [I am ready for anything and equal to anything through Him Who infuses inner strength into me; I am self-sufficient in Christ’s sufficiency].”

Philippians 4:13 (AMPC)

Take Note

To see your life how God sees it, you also have to see beyond yourself. See that God has big plans for you—plans so big that you can't complete them on your own.

 As a child of God,
God looks at you as...

- 1. You are acceptable
- 2. You are valuable
- 3. You are lovable
- 4. You are forgivable
- 5. you are capable

Of the five ways that God looks at us, which is the one you need most?
